

Key Learnings from Family Leaders

At the end of the conference day, we would love to know what your key learnings were as a result of today's program. Noting that this is the first time that the conference planning team of the Fulfilling the Promise conference has taken a proactive approach to include the family perspective, we hope to learn from your comments. Thank you for spending the day with us!

Please complete the following questions:

My Top Three Take-Aways from the conference are:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Comments:

What will you take back to others who were not able to attend?

Are there specific people or resources that you intend to follow up with following today? If so, please share why.

Would you recommend a conference like this to other Family Leaders?

Regarding logistics that supported your attendance, what was the most helpful and what was the least helpful? (i.e. location, stipend, guidance for participation, etc.)
